The Beatrix Potter Society and its friends need your help!

We are looking for a Treasurer, a Sales Manager, an Editor for the Journal and Newsletter, and someone to help us produce our books and merchandise.

The Treasurer deals with all financial aspects of the Society, keeps its accounts in order, and must be UK-based.

If you have an interest in figures and accounts, have run your own business or done some book-keeping, and would like more information, please contact Sue Smith, suesmithbps@hotmail.com

The Sales Manager processes orders for Society publications and merchandise, and must also be UK-based.

You should enjoy socialising with Members at Society events as well as seeking sales from outside sources.

Familiarity with spreadsheets and easy access to dry storage and a Post Office are essential.

For further information, please contact Andrew Wiltshire, bpsociety.andrew@gmail.com

The Editor of our Journal and Newsletter creates the Society's quarterly magazine. This involves contact with Members and organisations from around the world.

You will need editorial experience and a genuine interest in, and knowledge of, Beatrix Potter's life and work.

For further information, please contact Libby Joy, tchaize@btinternet.com

The publications sub-committee needs help from someone with previous editorial experience and an active interest in Beatrix Potter and the Society.

You should be happy to work with estimates, to liaise with the printers and to deal with permissions.

For further information, please contact Rowena Godfrey, rwngdfry@gmail.com
